

RETAIL CLOTHIERS TO ACT ON PRICES Drive Planned to Force Down Charges From High Levels.

Concerted action may be taken by retail clothiers throughout the country whereby they will withhold all buying for an entire season in order to force the present high prices of clothing back to a point approximating former price levels.

The retailers have to bear the brunt now," said Mr. Ritter. "We realize that manufacturers due to labor conditions and high costs of materials, have to pay abnormally high prices, and we, in turn, are forced to bear the burden."

New York Mr. Ritter characterized as "dumping ground for everything rotten and everything good," and said that while there are individual cases here of profiteering on the part of manufacturers the majority of wholesalers, in his opinion, are operating legitimately.

Essential Oils Soar Owing to Scarcity

Due to an acute scarcity of essential oils, sharp price advances were announced this week in almost all of the products. Peppermint, orange, spearmint, wormseed, lavender flowers, patchouli, citronella, cedar, bay, eucalyptus, bergamot and camphor oils.

There are indications of weakness in the fixed oils, Drug and Chemical Markets reports, and although spot stocks are not large, holders are uneasy and will unload at the slightest decline in price.
